

There's an old western song titled "When the Work's All Done This Fall." The implication is that the fall of the year is the time to get the work done, naturally. And that is true, at least with Jack Pine; he has much to do this fall and is hard up for time. The summer people have left, the hunters have arrived, and trout fishing is gone for another year. So the time has come to "git to gitin." But not for another week. Jack is just going to rest this week...not even think about work. Relatives have descended upon us from the plains and lakes of Minnesota, and the climate is fine for talking, for loafing and reminiscing; for a few card games, drives around the woods, sleeping late, and talking the serious problems of school with the kids.

All around us, though, are reminders of what must be done before the work is "all done this fall." The river boats, swaying like giant anchors, represent something more than the fun of the fishing season past. There is dredging, scraping, caulking, and painting to be done for another year. And it is usually morning the distant sound of a chain saw brings visions of an almost empty wood pile. The mail brings letters from deer and bird hunters. But the mail can wait until next week. Grass, growing slowly, must be cut again. And the eternal raking that will start. Piles of black sand, once nice, are a man once said, "I can sit and look at it for hours." And Jack Pine can, too, for this week at least.

Mrs. Oscar Goss Named To County Treasurer Post

A three member committee of Crawford County office holders has chosen Mrs. Oscar Goss to fill one of the unexpired term of Archie W. Howse as Crawford County Treasurer.

Mr. Howse, in his seventh year as County Treasurer, succumbed to his home in Maple Forest Township to a heart attack last Wednesday morning.

Making the selection were County Prosecutor Ward Ellison, Probate Judge Eulah Neafie and County Clerk Leo E. Lovell. These three officers are selected by law to fill any vacancy occurring in the office of County Treasurer.

Mrs. Goss is the widow of the late Oscar Goss who passed away on February 18, 1955. She is the mother of five children and has six grandchildren. Of late she has been employed in the office of the Register of Deeds of Crawford County.

SERVICES THURS. FOR DELIA M. FELDHAUSER

Funeral services are to be held today, Thursday, for Mrs. Delia M. Feldhauser, at 10 o'clock in the morning at St. Mary's Church. The Rev. Fr. Joseph Sakowski will conduct the rites. Interment is to be at Elmwood Cemetery in Grayling. Roy Papenfus, Stanley Hummel, Dohn Weaver, Dick McGill, George Bradstreet and Dale Redman, all of Maple Forest, will act as pallbearers.

Mrs. Feldhauser succumbed at her home in Maple Forest on Sunday, September 8th, following a stroke. She had been ill for five months. She was 68 years old.

Mrs. Feldhauser was born October 4, 1887, to Octave and Edna Boucher, in Etive, Mich. The family moved to Maple Forest when Mrs. Feldhauser was three years old, and it had been her home ever since. She attended grade school in Maple Forest. Her marriage to Edward P. Feldhauser took place on May 4, 1908, in Frederic. She was considered by her neighbors and family to be a fine mother and homemaker.

Surviving besides her husband are four daughters, Mrs. Carrie Baynham, Maple Forest; Bessie M. Feldhauser; Dora M. Feldhauser; Mrs. Gloria J. Rehl of Mt. Pleasant, and two sons, Edward H. of Ritter, Ore., and John L. of Grayling; five grandchildren and one sister, Mrs. Oscar Parsons of Maple Forest.

The answer to the problem of the browning white pine seems to be pretty well established now. It would seem that the large amounts of rain the past two summers have raised the underground water table to some sort of a new high. The last years prior to 1956 lowered the water table...with the result that the roots reached deeper and deeper into the ground seeking water. And now these same long roots are pretty well drowning in water. So they say say say.

Sea turtle quotes in the paper, and a Coronet. Two, started by Charles Ruffing are particularly thought provoking. Even if you could buy happiness, think what a luxury tax there is on it. And another: "A lot of people might spend less time watching TV if only they could remember what it was they were watching."

But the one that really got me shook up was from the Wall Street Journal, attributed to Harry Coffin. According to Coffin, "Starting up to admire your own body creates a pain in the neck."

After a conversation one slow day last week with the editor of the paper, about the increase in the price of the Avalanche this past few weeks, we agreed that the Avalanche is not exactly a vast paper, but it's still sort of half-right.

Grayling Center Of Air Search

The Grayling McNamara Air Base was the center of the air search conducted by the Civil Air Patrol, the Coast Guard and State Police for the missing plane of a Lansing family.

The Wisconsin C. A. P. carried out the search in the upper peninsula under the direction of the Michigan C. A. P. search headquarters at McNamara Air Base. Likewise with Coast Guard planes from Traverse City and planes of the State Police.

Major Leon Gaynor, Lake Orion, of the Michigan Civil Air Patrol was in charge of the search at the Grayling Air Base. At one time, 12 planes manned by C.A.P. staff officers and a full office crew were at Grayling. On Thursday of last week, at the height of the aerial investigation there were 35 seniors and 11 cadets of the C.A.P. at the local airport. Also on hand was a company equipped ambulance of the C.A.P. for emergency use. Among the pilots at the port was Mrs. Phillip Hart, wife of the Lt. Governor of Michigan and a noted woman aviator.

The search mission established at Grayling and an aerial reconnaissance began at 7 a. m. on Thursday. Base communications were set up in both HF and VHF with 3 mobile radio stations operating.

The Civil Air Patrol pulled out of Grayling Friday afternoon after receiving word from the Coast Guard that clothing and plane wreckage was recovered from Lake Superior, 4½ miles from Sand River, about 22 or 23 miles east of Marquette. Amongst the wreckage was a red and white plane wing tip carrying the last three serial numbers of the missing craft.

Unreported from a Labor Day weekend holiday in the Upper Peninsula were a Lansing photographic company owner, Ray Hiett, 40, and his wife and four children.

The last report of the six said they had taken off from Marquette in midafternoon on Labor Day against advice. Bad weather had been reported over Lake Michigan.

Hiett, described as an experienced flier, had taken his family to Baraga to his parents' home to help the elderly celebrate their golden wedding anniversary. In the group were his wife, Corinne, 29, their four children, Cameron, 9; Mark, 7; Connie, 5, and Scott, 11 months.

Mrs. Hiett, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russ Carrier of Lansing, Mr. and Mrs. Carrier are well known in Grayling, having the question, "Shall the Frederic Community School District be reorganized?"

The election is being held to seek 1½ mill extra tax in order that 7 mills tax will be raised locally for school purposes. If this is not done, the Frederic school will not receive 100 per cent State Aid, it was explained.

SPORTS CORNER

Here N' There

Nicknames are a "must" in most sports and many major league organizations have had a share of nicknames. The Chicago Cubs, for instance have been known in the past as the White Stockings, Cots, Branches, Rainmakers and Cowboys. The Brooklyn Dodgers have from time to time been referred to as the Superbas, Bridegrooms, Kings, Robins, and "Trolley Dodgers." The St. Louis Cardinals were originally known as the Browns, but changed to the Redbirds. The Chicago White Sox were once called the Invaders, later the White Stockings, eventually shortened to White Sox.

The most popular sport in India, with the game being played in practically every corner of the country . . . It is not established when or where the sport of fly fishing originated . . . Researchers have concluded that the average athlete is at his peak between the ages of 20 and 29 and that in many cases the lungs slow down athletic activity long before the legs begin to slow down.

Civil Defense Week . . .

The White House has designated September 15-21 as the second annual National Civil Defense Week.

In last year's observance, every State and Territory participated. Federal departments, State and municipal governments took the opportunity to show their state of civil defense readiness.

The 1957 observance, with the theme—"Government in Emergency"—should give these same agencies a chance for self-evaluation, a period of determining just how much progress has been made in a year's time in their preparedness for disaster.

In the past 12 months, there have been great advancements in weapons development. It is no secret that an all-out attack on the United States would destroy not only a great number of cities, but also inflict heavy damage on rural areas, and spread radioactive fallout to contaminate thousands of square miles.

While this is a most gruesome picture, it is not complete unless one were to consider the natural disasters such as floods, hurricanes, and tornadoes which occur almost daily to tax the resources of government. Each year about 400 small and large disasters are reported in the United States.

Man-made disasters and natural disasters are fundamentally alike. And basically, they can best be met by strengthening the organizations we now have on hand. This means that there is an urgent need to continue to build civil defense readiness and capability into existing governments at all levels.

In this respect, the 1957 theme of National Civil Defense Week—Government in Emergency—is most appropriate.

U. S. News & World Report has published a long interview with Economics Minister Dr. Ludwig Erhard of the German Federal Republic. In explaining reasons for West Germany's remarkable postwar recovery, he said: "The more the principle of the free market can be applied, the more productive the economy and the higher the standard of living. Wherever a free-market economy prevails, there are sound currencies and no need at all for manipulating them. The more the functions of the market place are taken over by government planning, the greater the danger becomes that productive forces will be stifled and that individual initiative will suffocate."

evening was spent playing cards, Mr. Otto Peterson and Mrs. Herbert Gothro winning prizes, after which the hostesses served a delicious lunch. Mrs. Failing was showered with many lovely gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Morency of Detroit arrived last week to spend some time here visiting the former's mother, Mrs. Lucille Morency.

Mr. Henry Stephan left Grayling Tuesday for the west, expecting to visit Yellow Springs, Ohio, the next day. Mrs. Stephan is making the trip by motor alone and will go to Stockton, Calif., to visit her mother, Mrs. John Murphy, expecting to remain there all winter. She expects to make her first stop at Salt Lake City.

Many Grayling home owners may have planted flower gardens this summer. Most inspiring are those who make special efforts toward floral culture. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barnett always have a fine flower garden and specialize in gladioli. This year these have been outstanding and have won many first premiums. Not the least of these is the high commendation given them by a well-known northern Michigan gladiola specialist, who claims theirs would win prizes in any glad show. They are also very successful in growing other varieties of flowers. Dr. and Mrs. Clippert produced this year the finest collection of dahlias that we have ever seen, even in well-known dahlia farms. Their plants are of the most unusual varieties, some of which have been as large as 10 inches in diameter, and the colors certainly have been gorgeous and beautiful. Mercy Hospital, Mrs. Margrethe Graham's Nels Corwin's, Miss Mabel Brasie's and Mrs. George Burke's gardens are beautiful with flowers and flowering shrubs. And there are many other homes showing weeks making the trip entirely by riding with others. Sam is 16 years of age, but that didn't stop him on the first adventure and now he's much too old to stop his experiences. He made the return trip in about 10 days. The last lap of his journey from Prudenville included a ten mile hike until a local man came along and took him home. He missed a few days of school but no doubt his experience was worth it.

Mark Lewis, of Flint, visited his mother, Mrs. A. M. Lewis at Lake Marquette, en route to Newberry Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Schable, daughter Beverly Hoppe and son, George, Jr., returned Saturday from a 10 days' pleasant vacation. They spent several days in Detroit visiting Mrs. Schable's sister, Mrs. Charles Hewitt and family, and the week thereafter to Lansing and visited the ladies' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Fletcher. William Barnes, who makes his home with the Schables but who was visiting his sister, Mrs. Fletcher, returned home with them.

Capt. J. J. Spelman, who is the manager of the Officers' Clubhouse at Hanson State Military Reservation, is leaving this week for Florida to spend the winter. He says that during this season 232 guests were entertained at the club, mostly from 17 states. Over Labor Day there were 17 guests at the club. Among the distinguished guests last summer was Col. Ahrendts of the War Department, and the latter was so delighted with the place that he says he hopes to be sent here again. He remarked that Camp Grayling was the finest military camp in America, and he is of the opinion that eventually it would come into permanent use.

Mrs. Gust, our itinerant schoolboy, returned home last evening from a hitchhike vacation that took him to the state of Washington. He was away about six beautiful flowers gardens. It is an inspiration to walk around town just to see some of our fine home gardens.

Mrs. Verda May Schofield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Schofield, was united in marriage to Mr. Lawrence Galchouse on Saturday, September 1st, at Gaylord. Rev. Shugge officiated at the ceremony.

46 YEARS AGO
September 14, 1911

The marriage of Dr. Claude Roy Keyport of Gaylord and Miss Norla Belle Walton of Detroit occurred at the latter city in the First Presbyterian Church last week. Wednesday at 6 o'clock p.m. the bride is a daughter of our prosecuting attorney F. G. Walton of this city. For a number of years she lived at Bay City where she is popular and well-known, but for some time she has been bookkeeper for the Federal Casualty Company at their Detroit office.

The groom is one of our successful well-known physicians and a number of friends who will unite in extending best wishes to him and his bride. After spending a few days sightseeing in Detroit they came to Grayling and will soon take up their home in the house lately occupied by Frank D. Phelps on Chestnut St.

Theodore O'Dell who lives at Beaver Creek, last week was at Jackson and purchased a fine pair of driving horses. He made the trip from there to his home in three days.

The work of putting down new cement sidewalks is progressing rapidly, perhaps the most conspicuous improvements that this work have brought about are the new walks from the company's office to their hardware store on Main Street and the walks running to Grayling Mercy Hospital and throughout the yards.

A number of our citizens returned from a three month pleasure trip abroad. Mr. and Mrs. John K. Hanson, Mrs. Jorgenson and daughter, Minnie, and Mrs. C. Schow spent most of their time seeing the sights and visiting friends in Denmark, while Mr. and Mrs. Hanson divided their time between Denmark and Germany.

The Feldhauser brothers, of Maple Forest Township, are moving their portable sawmill to AuSable, where they have a contract to cut a million feet of lumber for George A. Loud and Son.

Dr. O. Palmer was in West Branch on legal business Monday and reports one of the worst electrical storms he ever witnessed.

Fifty buildings are completed in AuSable and Oscoda and only 20 fire-sufferers are living in army

To the Man Postponing a Dream!

The man you see above—watching a beautiful new 1957 Cadillac as it takes the sweep o' the boulevard—is representative of a goodly number of American motorists.

He is a gentleman who would like ever so much to own a Cadillac car—but who feels the time is not quite propitious for him to do so.

Well, we have some sound advice for this gentleman, and for those like him, and it is this: Come in, sir, and see for yourself!

First of all, you will find that today's Cadillac car is exceptionally practical to own and to enjoy.

In fact, its relatively modest cost, its wonderful efficiency of operation, its great dependability and its marvelous resale value mark it unmistakably as one of motordom's soundest investments.

And then you will discover that your dealer is currently prepared to give you a most generous allowance on your present car. In fact, the transition to Cadillac is easier today than it has been in many, many years.

And, as if this were not sufficiently gratifying in itself, your dealer can assure you of prompt delivery on your favorite model.

In short, if you are the man postponing his dream-of-a Cadillac, then the odds are that the "golden moment" has arrived!

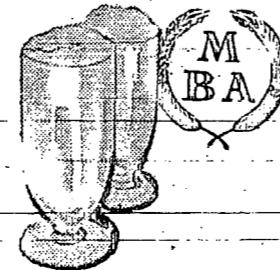

You should visit your dealer today—take the wheel for yourself—experience the marvels of Fleetwood luxury—and listen to the revealing facts about Cadillac practicality.

He'll be waiting to welcome you—soon!

SIAN - GAUTHIER VOWS EXCHANGED

Given in marriage by her father, Joseph Sian, Miss Barbara Ann Sian became the bride of Garland Gaither on Saturday afternoon, August 31st. The Rev. Clare Olin read the vows at the Lovells Chapel. Miss Beverly Spaulding was the organist.

The bride chose a gown of white nylon lace over taffeta. Her veil was of fingertip length. She carried a bouquet of baby chrysanthemums.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Gauthier of Lovells, chose Carl Sian, brother of the bride as best man. Miss Gale Gaither, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. She wore a gown of aqua chiffon over taffeta, with a headpiece of pink and white roses. Her bouquet was chrysanthemums.

About 100 guests extended best wishes to the newlyweds at the reception held at the home of the bride's parents. The wedding cake was decorated with pink and white flowers.

The happy couple made a trip across the Straits of Mackinac returning to Lovells afterwards until Mr. Gauthier's departure for the army last Tuesday, September 10th.

PIKES PEAK THE HARD WAY OFF THE ROAD!

An off-the-road run up Pikes Peak was called impossible by people who know the mountain well. But a production Chevrolet pickup actually did it ... to prove its pulling power and ruggedness!

Stoop grade near timberline—a rugged test of power. The power and torque of Chevrolet's famous Thriftmaster 6 proved more than a match for the most difficult grades.

Miles of loose boulders and thinning air offer extreme challenge. Yet the big Chevy engine never faltered; it performed flawlessly mile after mile, all the way up the mountain.

Final effort achieves summit! Pickup conquers Pikes Peak... shows why Chevrolet trucks are famous for staying and saving on tough jobs! Talk trucks with your Chevrolet dealer.
